the street car company's petition with the Davenport city council last evening a peti ion with the signa-tures of 75 property owners, calling themselves the Davenport Community Welfare club, was filed with the council, protesting the plan of installing one-man cars. The city body instructed the street car committee to call the special meeting this evening for discussion, not for any action, and to report back to the council at its next regular ses-

J. G. Huntoon, general manager of the street car company, appeared before the council and gave statistics showing that a saving of approximately $2,856 a month can be made on the Third street car line alone by the substitution of oneman for the two-men cars. Charles Rogers, president of the local carmen, is of the opinion that the new car system would cut their ranks interest and the total amount of in half and throw over one hundred men in Davenport out of work. He also colitends that one-man care are more dangerous than two-men cars. Company officials say there is greater salety in the former than in the latter type.
